

Clarification Statement

Recently, our company has observed instances across multiple online platforms where other entities use names similar to ours, potentially leading to misleading perceptions.

Consequently, we hereby issue the following formal statement:

1. All business operations of our company are conducted in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
2. Our company has never engaged in any fundraising activities targeting investors in Mainland China.
3. Our company has never provided or authorized any mobile application (APP) for business activities.
4. The only official website of our company is: <https://www.shuionim.com>.

We strongly recommend that all investors carry out their financial transactions only through authorized and official channels. Stay cautious: avoid clicking on suspicious links and never transfer funds to unverified bank accounts to protect your assets.

Our company reserves the right to pursue further legal action against any individuals or entities engaging in unauthorized use or suspected misappropriation of our company's name.

Shui On Investment Management Limited